

MANUFACTURED HOUSING CARD AGENT TRAINING CLASSES

The Pennsylvania Manufactured Housing Association (PMHA) has been certified by Pennsylvania Department of Transportation (PennDOT) to offer training courses to card agents working in the manufactured housing industry.

The Manufactured Housing Card Agent Training is for card agents doing title work for manufactured homes only. If you do more than just manufactured housing titles, this course is not for you and we recommend taking a training course offered by PennDOT or PAA.

MANUFACTURED HOUSING CARD AGENT TRAINING

This course meets the PennDOT Agent Services Training Requirements for individuals handling titling of manufactured homes, only.

Act 152 of 2002 mandated that all card agents, sign contracts with PennDOT. This includes manufactured housing retailers who process title work. Under the terms of the contracts, issuing agents and anyone else involved with titling must complete a PennDOT-authorized agent service training course.

This PennDOT-authorized course consists of instruction designed to give in-depth and well organized introductions to the most common transactions and procedures when processing manufactured housing title work. Instruction includes basic form completion with motor vehicle certificates of title, forms MV-1, MV-4ST and many more.

Card Agents are required to be trained one year after initial licensing and every two years thereafter.

The registration fee includes, handouts and a certificate of completion.

NOTE: PennDOT requires you to provide your Card Agent Number to receive credit for this class.

This training course covers PennDOT Titling Forms and Procedures specific to the manufactured housing industry.
